In Loving Memory of

Giavanna Grace Ferrucci

(April 14, 2006 - April 14, 2006)

It was worth loving and loosing you then to never to have had the chance to love you at all.

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Giavanna Grace Ferrucci who was born in Syracuse, New York on April 14, 2006 and was born still. You will live forever in our hearts. You never had a chance to see us, but we saw you before you were born. We can only hope that you felt the love that we truly feel for you. We miss and love you so much. Gianna will always have her special Guardian Angel. You will always be seen in Gianna. You may be gone but you are NEVER forgotten!

but not as much as tomorrow.....

I guess we have no choice but to wait to see you again. It will take FOREVER! So we sit and wait, until then.....Remember.....I love you today more then yesturday,

*PLEASE, don't ask me if I'm over it yet.
I'll never be over it.
PLEASE, don't tell me she's in a better place.
She isn't here with me.
PLEASE, don't say at least she isn't suffering.
I haven't come to terms with why she had to suffer at all.
PLEASE, don't tell me you know how I feel,
unless you have lost a child.
PLEASE, don't ask me if I feel better.
Bereavement isn't a condition that clears up.
PLEASE, don't tell me at least you had her for a little while.
When would you choose for your child to die?
PLEASE, don't tell me God never gives us more than we can bear.
PLEASE, just say you're sorry.
PLEASE, just say you remember my child, if you do.
PLEASE, just let me talk about my child.
PLEASE, mention my child's name.
PLEASE, just let me cry.*

UPDATED 2/15/2007**

THIS IS THE MAN WE NEED TO EMAIL. HE IS THE REASON THIS BILL HAS NOT YET PASSED.....

<http://www.richardgottfried.org/>

HE IS THE REASON THIS BILL IS STILL WAITING TO BE PASSED.....HE IS THE ONE THAT NEEDS THE EMAILS OR PHONE CALLS MOST.....PLEASE HELP US!!!!

In New York State, there is no birth certificate given to parents in a birth resulting in a stillbirth. We, the parents who have given birth to a child still, need your help.

I never fully understood why I was never given a birth certificate from the state of NY for Giavanna. Did i not give birth to identical twin girls? I am not the only person that a birth certificate was never given to. There are over 2000 people in NYS alone that have been through this. NYS does not see the birth of Giavanna as ever existing. Or any stillbirth for that matter. I was, however, given a death certificate. Now answer me this, how can she be put to rest when she never was "born?"

I, like ALL the other moms out there, got pregnant (in our case w/identical twins), felt our babies move, touched our bellies to let them know that we were here and that we loved them, go through sleepless nights b/c we couldnt get get comfy? Did I not give birth to my babies? The only difference is that I gave birth to a child that had already passed. I still held my daughter, kissed my daughter, cried on my daughter, touched her and hugged her. The only difference was that instead of bringing her home, I had to lay her to rest. I, unlike the other moms of NORMAL pregnancies, burried my daughter with no actual record of her birth.

Now you need to help us out! We have been given a chance to let the NYS Assembly and Senators know that this bill HAS to be passed. The bill number is #S00186 or #A 2264 and the name of the bill is the "MISSing Angel Act" and NEEDS to be passed. We, the parents who need this passed, cannot be heard unless EVERYONE that reads this, sends them an email. They are expecting it! If we do not continually send them emails, they will not pass it. We have to show them that just because our babies were born still, that they were born, loved and are greatly missed. I understand that it will never bring her back, but it will ease so much for me and all those other parents. Even if you do not live in NYS, please still send the email. You do not have to tell them you dont live here.

Here is how you need to do it.....Just send the email with the bill number(s) in the subject line. Then just write "Please pass this bill for the children that deserve to be recognized, just because they were born still, they still live in our hearts."

THATS IT! We are trying to everyone to do it at least once a week. OR EVERYTIME YOU VISIT THIS SITE. Just copy the list of address into your TO: line on the email and SEND IT! Help me and so many others get the certificate we deserve. You may also write an email of a personal story or just send the above! AND SEND IT TO EVERYONE IN YOUR EMAIL BOX. EVERYONE NEEDS TO SEND ONE!!!!

Thank you all so much for the love and support. We just need your help! Love you all.....

When You See A Butterfly

My soul is released in Heaven
My spirit is in the wind,
I've arrived inside God's kingdom
In Heaven here with Him.

Inside this place of beauty
Enchantment always near,
Far past imagination
This land that has no fear.

Think of me when butterflies
Are flying everywhere
I'm singing, dancing, laughing
Free from earth's despair.

The other side of tomorrow
Within God's time you'll see,
I know He'll bring you safely home
Then forever we will be.

Keep a song inside your heart
And know that I am free,
Do not weep in sorrow
When you remember me.

Dancing With the Angels
by Monk and Neagle

*Memories surround me
But sadness has found me
I'd do anything for more time
Never before has someone meant more
And I can't get you out of my mind
There is so much that I don't understand*

But I know

*You're dancing with the angels
Walking in new life
Dancing with the angels
Heaven fills your eyes
Now that you're dancing with the angels*

*You had love for your family
Love for all people
Love for the Father, and Son
Your heart will be heard
In your unspoken words
Through generations to come
There is so much that I don't understand
But I know*

*You're dancing with the angels
Walking in new life
You're dancing with the angels
Heaven fills your eyes
Now that you're dancing*

*We're only here for such a short time
I'm gonna stand up, Shout out
And sing Hallelujah
One day I'll see you again*

*And we'll be dancing with the angels
Walking in new life
Dancing with the angels
Heaven will fill our eyes
When we're dancing with the angels
We'll be dancing with the angels....*

I Believe in Angels

A Mother's Love

I didn't have to look into your eyes to fall in love with you.
I didn't need to hear you cry
to know you loved me too.
I didn't need to hold your hand to cherish you for always.
Within my womb, we shared our hearts.
You touched my soul.
You sweetened my spirit.
You gave me memories I'll always hold dear.
Yes. My heart aches since you departed too soon.
But a mother's love does not end with death.
For you are my child.
Forever my love is yours.

I thought of you

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday, and the day before that, too.
I think of you in silence, I often say your name,
But all I have is memories and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart.
I shed tears for what might of been, a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still,

In my heart you hold a place no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you, the day God took you home.

My Mom Is A Survivor

My Mom is a survivor, or so I've heard it said.
But I hear her crying at night when all others are in bed.
I watch her lay awake at night and go to hold her hand.
She doesn't know I'm with her to help her understand.
But like the sands on the beach that never wash away...
I watch over my surviving mom, who thinks of me each day.
She wears a smile for others...a smile of disguise.
But through Heaven's door I see tears flowing from her eyes.
My mom tries to cope with death to keep my memory alive.
But anyone who knows her knows it is her way to survive.
As I watch over my surviving mom...through Heaven's open door.
I try to tell her that angels protect me forever more.
But I know that doesn't help her or ease the burden she bears.
So if you get a chance, go visit her...And show her that you care.
For no matter what she says...no matter what she feels.
My surviving mom has a broken heart that time won't ever heal~!

~~~~~This poem was written by Kaye Des'Ormeaux and dedicated to Clarissa

This is in honor of the Moms who have lost a child.
Whether it be their only child or they have other surviving children, the pain is the same...it still hurts and will hurt forever.

Another angel: Little man, Mark Derosa, another angel taken too soon.....

Alice, his mom, is a very special friend of mine...

The image features two roses in a muted, earthy color palette, set against a textured, parchment-like background. The roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant, with one slightly larger and more open than the other. The overall aesthetic is soft and romantic.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.

from the deepest of our hearts...

To my daughter on her very first birthday~

Happy Birthday my love! I cannot even believe that you and your sister are actually 1! I am so amazed at how fast this first year went by. I cannot even believe that I had to say goodbye to you 1 year ago. This probably going to be the hardest letter I ever write to you. So here goes...

You are so beautiful and you are getting so big. I know this because every second of everyday that I am watching Gianna, I see you. There are many time, I have said this before, that she looks at me and I know she is seeing something new. That is why I know that it is you. She looks at me differently and she smiles differently. I know that it is you that I am seeing in her eyes. I know that it is you touching me, because it just feels different. She kisses me and at times it is stronger then she can kiss. I know that that kiss was from you.

I look back over the last 2 years and wonder why everything has happened the way that it has. I have not one answer to that question. My pregnancy was perfect and my girls are/were perfect. I really wish I did because I wonder if I would be further in the Bereavement Process. Someone told me that she thought I was stuck in a certain stage of the grieving cycle, and she was right. I have been to a new doctor hoping to begin the steps in a forward direction instead of lateral. We will have to give it time to see if she can help your poor lost mother. I never thought I would need help with anything, but then again I never thought that I would ever loose a child.

You know, funny to think that it is not as easy as everyone thinks to go forward. Many people don't know what it is like to only have that day, those moments of holding on to you and those moments of turning back the clocks to a different day to change what happened. I truly wish that there was a way that I did not have to look at myself in the mirror and not have to look at your sister everyday to just not have it to have happened.

Many people think that just because a year ago they were there for us at the funeral or at the hospital that it ended there. Well it did not. It never will. Your daddy, myself, and your 2 beautiful sisters will never be over it. It is a fact of life for us. We have to live with the emptiness EVERYDAY. I am not looking for any sympathy. We know what we mean to everyone and what we don't to some. That is fine. I have no hate, just sympathy. Sad to think that we had to go through this to see who truly cares and who does not.

I have accepted that there are some who don't call. Glad they do not. I may not be so nice. Thankful for the ones that do, they have no idea what a simple, "how are you?" does during a time like this. Well you know, I tell you. You know what I have been through, you heard me crying in the middle of the night so many time. You hear me when I need your help. I just wish I didn't have to ask you to help me, for I should be the one helping you.

I do need to ask you a few questions. Did you ever ask Him why this happened? I need you to do that for me when you see Him next time. He should have some type of answer, I would think anyway. What was His intention? Were you put here for a reason? I told your Daddy this and now I am telling you what my thoughts are....I think you were sent to us for a reason. It was to bring us even closer then we were before we conceived you 2. I think you came to us to show your daddy and I what true love really is. We have always been a great couple, so much in love, but now it is different. We were always so close, that I think there were and are many jealous people of that. Seeing that this usually drives a couple apart, we have only gotten closer. Closer then any two people can get. I am so glad that I have your Daddy because if I didn't have him, who knows where I would be today. I may have joined you by now. He kept me strong. We have cried together. He has held onto me when I did not think that I could stand. He has given me so much to me. I think you came to show us that there are so many things that are taken for granted. I thank you for helping us see that there is more to life then just the stuff on the surface. I owe your Daddy so much. I love you Steve.

I am going to let you go and play with the other angels up there in Heaven. Make sure you kiss Mark for his Mommy. She really missed him. I owe her so much to seeing that I have never even met her and she means the world to me. Keep making everyone smile, your good at that. I love you baby, until next time.....

My love forever;

Mommy

P.S.- By the way, I will be sending you this letter in the red heart balloon that your sister, Gianna, will be releasing on Sunday. My coueslor told me that maybe I should do that. I already wrote it, so I figured I would send it. Hope you get it soon! Love you.....

feeling your pain

April 26, 2007

Ally, I do honestly feel your pain. We lost our twin angels in November. We had no idea. They called it Twin twin transfusion. Never even heard the word before, now it haunts me. Our sweet babies were both born still after a sonogram showed no heartbeats. Time stood still. We did all we could to hold on to the moment. Thank God for our strength, or we would've easily lost our minds. We do have 5 other children. He came in with two boys, I came in with two boys, and then we made Olyvia. She was a mere 8 months old when I became pregnant. I was so scared, and stressed out during my pregnancy. At times I do blame myself, if I had just done this, or not done that. But, I know it will do no good. It is what it is. They are in heaven, waiting. And one beautiful day when I go to my eternal home, I will hold them, kiss their feet, smell them, and never let go. I will keep you in my prayers, Ally. God Bless and take care.

Your daughters are beautiful little angels. I do not know you, but would like to send my deepest sympathy your way. I have lost a baby by miscarriage. Yes I know not the same, but after trying for years it was still very painful for me. I am currently pregnant with my baby girl, and am scared that she will come too early, and haven't stopped crying over any of it yet. My son is 5 years old and is so excited and I am as well. I wish I could do something for you and your families pain. I could be very cleche and tell you god works in mysterious ways, but that does not help she is still not here with you. Her memory will live through you and her story through me. I thank you for showing me that you can be strong through a situation like this, this is exactly what I needed. Much Love to your little angel!

WHY part 2

February 26, 2007

Sorry I hit the send button.

I am one of a very few people that actually had to chance to know you April 14, 2006 and I am very lucky. I at least got a change to hold you and let you feel my love. I showed you and told you how much you were missed and loved. I can still remember holding you in my arms. I remember getting to the hospital and seeing you and saying you are were small. You looked absolutely beautiful. I kissed you over and over again and never wanted to let you go. If we could have kept you, we would have. I will never forget that day, I will tell you all about it when we meet again.

Sometimes I sit and wonder after seeing Gianna the ways the two of you would be different. Would you have different face feature, would you laugh different, smile different and which one would be the angel and which one would be the devil child. Which one would talk first, cruel first, and walk first. I guess we will never no. I will no because I can see you in my dreams everyday and night. Gianna is saying "dada" and I know that you are saying it also. I can see you in Gianna, that is why she is such a happy baby. You don't no how many times I have almost called Gianna, Giavanna because you are there and just bursting to come out, but I have to be careful not to say that. Sometimes it just seems that Gianna just lets you take over, so she can show us that you are still here with us.

You now have a star named after you Giavanna Grace Ferrucci, I can look up at the sky and know that you are watching over all of us. If you ever get an answer as to why this happen, please send us a sign so that we will know, maybe it will give us some comfort, I know it will give your mommy comfort.

Your mommy misses you more than anything in this world. That's all she wanted was her twins. She is such a wonderful mother, wife and person. You not being here has changed her so much. I wish there was something that I could do to comfort her, if there is anything, tell me in my dreams. Life will never be the same without you. I bought you and Gianna your birthday present, yesterday, I really hope you like it.

Please watch over your mommy, daddy and sisters they need you everyday. You are my little Aries star that I will never forget and will pray on everynight. I know that you will be there everytime. At least once a week we will have a date, just for the two of us to talk. I love you baby, I don't want to say good bye again, so until we meet again, talk to you very soon, I promise (and as you know I never break a promise). I love you my little Cabbage Patch.

I sit here often just to listen to this song and it brings tears to my eyes as soon as it starts. I know that you feel us down here hurting because you are not here but you shouldn't up there, you should be down here with us. Sometimes I sit and wonder why things happen, I know the saying "everything happens for a reason" but not in this case. Why is it that people that don't deserve these children never have to go through this pain and people that deserve them have to. That is something that I will never understand. I know that you are here in spirit and our dreams but that is not good enough, you should be here playing with you sisters and your cousins. I am very lucky to have had a chance to hold you and get to no you on April 14, 2006. At least I got to say good bye, even though I never should have had to say good bye at all. I should have been saying welcome to the world, honey.

I

Giavanna~

My sweet angel. I dont even know why I bother with this website. You cannot see it, you cannot read it and you cannot respond to this. All it does is give me some "relief" that I was able to get what I was thinking off my chest.

The only thing I can say is that this web site doesnt change a freakin thing. I dont understand how come your daddy and I had to loose you. Some people had the nerve to say that you belong where ever it is that you are. What place is better then in your mommy or daddys arms? Or next to your sister, Gianna. I cannot even get myself to go to your grave and talk to you because I never wanted to believe what has happened to us. This should never have happened. It came without a warning. That's why it doesn't seem true. There are many times that I will think about you and really wonder if you ever existed because it is such a blur for me. I don't know if it makes it easier or if it is all of a sudden going to hit me one day that you are gone and I am going to lose it. I don't even understand it. How can I believe in something when I just don't understand it. What am I going to do in a few years when I have to explain it to Gianna?

I can only pray that she will never ask what happened. But I know that will never happen. All that I prayed that day last year on April 14th, never came true so why would that? I just kept praying that they were wrong and that you were ok. I hate the memories that I have of the day that you and your sister were born. That day I never saw her, only you and you were never able to see me.

I do only hope that you know how much I love you. I hope you know that the only thing I have ever felt and will always feel for you is love. You were always so special ever since we found you there next to your sister. I just hope that you will always know that I loved you. I just want you to know that I have always loved you and I will ALWAYS love you forever...I am never going to be the same. I hope that you will never be the same either. I just wish there was one way with all the freakin technology that there is out there, that I could see and hold you again. I just will never understand this whole thing called life. How come some get handed everything so easy and others have to work for everything? Is it because we, the ones that have to work for everything, are stronger?

I want you to know one thing before I go, I never stopped loving you. I never will. Do you ever hold me responsible for you having to leave us? Is there something that I should have avoided or done differently? I wish I would have been sent to Syracuse and then would I have you? I will always hold myself responsible for your loss. I should have known better to go to the people who deal with high risk. I will forever know that it was my poor judgement that took you from us. I am so sorry for not knowing. Please forgive me.....I dont know if your sister ever will. I guess I will have to cross that bridge when the time comes. Then I will have to admit to her that it was my fault that I didnt. I hope someday you both will forgive me.....

I love you with ever bit of my heart and soul. Nothing will ever change that. You are my forever love.....XOXOXOXOXO I miss you everyday and with every bit of me.

Love~

To The Moment Precious Angel in the World,

I can't believe that you and Gianna were nine months old on Sunday, January 14, 2007. I can't believe in a couple of months you are going to be a year old. I can't believe how time flies. I would like to turn back time and bring you back to us. Life isn't fair. Maybe you know something that we don't. If you do please let us know. You are so beautiful and getting so big. I think of you everyday, but today is different. I don't know why or what's different but something is going on. Maybe you are telling me something. If you are I am listening. I think of your mommy everyday and can't imagine what in the world she is going through. When you talk to her again, please let her know that I love her and she can call and talk anytime she wants, I am always here for her. I look at your beautiful face and wonder why. Everytime I look at you it brings tears to my eyes and I stop and say a pray for you. Sometimes I come to this site and listen to the song and just cry. I know that you are watching over all of us and you are protecting everyone. I sit and write this to you the tears are just rolling off my face, there is so much that I wanted to tell you and Uncle Adam and I wanted to do so much with you and your sisters. We were so excited to be an Aunt and Uncle to twins. Which we still are but it's not the same. Please come back to us. I want to hold you one more time, kiss you over and over again, hug you and never let you go. I love you my angel and please send me a sign that you know how much I love you and miss you. Sleep tight and don't let the bed bugs bite ( Ask Uncle Adam about that). I love you angel and I will see you soon. Give mommy, daddy and sisters kisses. LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU more than you WILL EVER KNOW.

Dear Giavanna,

"Happiness is like a butterfly which, when pursued, is always beyond our grasp, but, if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon you." - Hawthorne

i saw this quote and i thought of you. i lite a candle for you today, but i didnt get to say all i wanted to say to you. i hope they are treating you good up there. we all are gonna see you again. thats why i learned that its never goodbye its always "i'll see you soon " and i know in my heart that we will again. i never told anyone this but on my senior retreat for school, it was right after summer.. we went to lourdes camp. its on a lake. so beautiful. but the first night we were there we all were outside and stood by the fire and went around and told each other what we thought are biggest fears were and if we have lost anything in our life that you just felt like nothing mattered anymore. at first i was very self consious about answering because i was infront of a bunch of people who really knew nothing..but the truth is i told them that my biggest fear was when i was in the hospital and the thought of never being able to see you again. and i never really thought of what heaven is like and if it will be as beautiful as your making it. and i cried that night for hours. they must have thought i was crazy because it was supose to be about coming together as seniors, but all i could do was sneek out at midnight and go sit by the lake and i think about everything and all the things i never got to say to you and all the things that i'll get to say to you when i see you again. i looked up and saw a shooting star. i know that was your presence because when i watched it i felt a cool breeze i knew that was you baby angel. i'll never forget you sweet heart and i miss you very much. mommy doesnt know this yet but your gettin an invitation to my graduation..she might cry but its okay pumpkin butt. :) i know you'll be there watching me get my diploma. I LOVE YOU SWEETY! i'll talk to you soon. :)

Angel Moms

We have shared our tears and our sorrow,

We have given encouragment to each other,

Given hope for a brighter tomorrow,

We share the title of grieving mother.

Some of us lost older daughters or sons,
Who we watched grow over the years,
Some have lost their babies before their lives began,
But no matter the age, we cry the same tears.

We understand each others pain,
The bond we share is very strong,
With each other there is no need to explain,
The path we walk is hard and long.

Our children brought us together,
They didn't want us on this journey alone,
They knew we needed each other,
To survive the pain of them being gone.

So take my hand my friend,
We may stumble and fall along the way,
But we'll get up and try again,
Because together we can make it day by day.

We can give each other hope,
We'll create a place where we belong,
Together we will find ways to cope,
Because we are angel moms and together we are strong!

Thinking of you always Ally,
Your friend forever,
Alice

I thought of you

November 17, 2006

I thought of you

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new,

I thought about you yesterday, and the day before that, too.

I think of you in silence, I often say your name,

But all I have is memories and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping,I have you in my heart.
I shed tears for what might of been,a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,you never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,in death I love you still,
In my heart you hold a place no one could fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,but you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you,the day god took you home.

My mom,she tells a lot of lies
she never did before.

From now until she dies,
she'll tell a whole lot more.

Ask my mom how she is
and because she can't explain,
she will tell a little lie
because she can't describe the pain.

Ask my mom how she is
She'll say,"I'm alright."
If that's the truth,then tell me
Why does she cry each night?

Ask my mom how she is,

she seems to cope so well.

she didn't have a choice you see nor the strength to yell.

Ask my mom how she is,

"I'm fine,I'm well,I'm coping."

For god's sake mom,just tell the truth,

just say your heart is broken.

She'll love me all her life

I loved her all of mine.

But if you ask her how she is,

She'll lie and say she's fine.

I am here in heaven.

I cannot hug from here.

If she lies to you,don't listen,

Hug her and hold her near.

On the day we meet again.
We'll smile and I'll be bold.
I'll say,you're lucky to get in here mom,
With all those lies you told.

Hi My Angel,

We all wish you were here with us, it's not the same without you here. We all miss you so much and you will never how much. Your Mommy and Daddy did not deserve for this to happen to them. They are best parents that I have ever seen and you will never no, how lucky you are to have them. Your Mommy is the strongest person I know and for her to have to deal with this is the hardest thing I think she has ever had to go through. I remember the first time I saw you. You were so beautiful and tiny. I am very lucky I got a chance to hold you, kiss you, hug you, touch you, look into that beautiful face and most important love you. You have touched so many people, it's unbelievable. Your Uncle Adam and I think of you all the time and we feel so lucky that we had the chance to love you. We hope you felt that? Your sister Gianna is beautiful and everytime I see her, I see you in her eyes. Your big sister Adrianna is beautiful also and that's all because of your mommy and daddy. I can't stop thinking of why this had to happen. It's not fair. You should be here with your sister. If we could turn back time you would be here with us. Life is not fair. I know that you are watching down on all of us, especially your mommy, daddy and sisters to make sure that we all get through this. You are a precious little angel. When I see a butterfly, I know that you are here with us and making sure that we are alright. I love you so much and if I could have just one wish, I would wish to have you back. Please keep watching over Mommy, she really needs you and Daddy and your sisters. I love you Sweetheart and please always remember that and never forget all the people that love you and wish you were here.

I MISS YOU MORE THAN YOU WILL EVER NO...Please keep me in your heart, you are in mine every second of every day. I LOVE YOU MY SWEET ANGEL.

Dearest Giavanna, I told your mom about your visit to me. I still feel your touch on my face and your presence that night. I will remember it forever. I know you are always here and wish to feel your touch again. Love and kisses and Merry Christmas. Sing with the angels and we will hear you. Love forever

Mommy

My Dearest Giavanna~

Where do I even begin? I am the only one here, other than Gianna, that truly felt you. You were so quite the entire pregnancy. I really was looking forward to holding you and your sister and taking on the TWIN CHALLENGE. I never thought it would end up like this. I was so wishing for healthy babies. You both were so close in size the ENTIRE time. I just do not understand. You were never given a chance. I always wonder and I will forever more, how you and your sister would have been together. You were not supposed to leave. You were ment to be here. Not so far away. I just do not understand. I hate feeling like this. You are my daughter and you were never supposed to leave me. Did you come to us to make us love eachother more? Did you come to us to make your daddy and I even closer then we already were? If it was not for your daddy, I do not know where I would be right now. He is my strength. I think that I love him more today then I did 5 months ago. He has helped me through so much that I could never repay him.

I was blessed with something that not many people in their lives will experience and be blessed with. How come it was taken away so soon? You never had a chance. You were so beautiful when I held you. You were perfect and pink. How come He took you? I want you back. I would give my life for you to come back here. Your sister, Gianna, needs you and will forever be lost without you. How do I explain this too her when she wants you here too? I should not have to go through this. There was so much that I wanted you two to do together. I wanted to dress you alike and have everyone stare at you two because you were twins. That is the way it is supposed to be. Not this way. I never thought I would have to use a site like this to contact you. But who am I kidding? I cannot reach you this way. I can NEVER reach you unless you come to me. I think I am loosing my mind. I will never heal from this I know it. I pulled out your outfit that the hospital dressed you in and it had stains on it from when you were delivered. That is all I have of you. I should have buried you in the outfits I wanted to bring you home in. I actually do not even know what I buried you in. I do not remember. I wish I could have held you longer. I wish I could have held you and your sister together. That is all I ever wanted to do from the moment I was told I was having twins. I always thought about doing it. It brought a smile to my face. Now thinking how I was never able to do that, I hate it. I wish I could have done things differently. Looking at it now I wish I would have made a different choices about your care before delivery.

I can sit here all day and talk, well write to you but you will never know the emptiness that I feel. Maybe you feel it too. I hope not because it truly sucks. I just want you to know that I never stoped loving you for a single moment, have not yet, and NEVER will. I love you so much. You are forever in my heart. I LOVE YOU. YOU ARE MINE FOREVER!!!!!!

Love you and miss you more than you can imagine.

MOMMY

I can't help but wonder what all of our lives would have been like if you could have just stayed here with us. ..Your mommy went through so many emotions when she found out that she was carrying you and your sister. I couldn't help but notice the fear in her voice when she told me, but oh how that fear turned to excitement..She was glowing at the thought of having her two little peas in a pod. When mommy and daddy asked me to be your godmother I was overjoyed and honored, to have the opportunity to be that big of a role model in your life...I miss you...I never had the chance to see you...only in pictures, but i know that you are beautiful. Baby girl please look in on your mommy and daddy and sisters...even though you are not here with us, they need to know and be comforted that you are well and in a warm and safe place. Your mommy misses you more than you will ever be able to understand. My promise to you is that...I will do everything I can to help you take care of them while I am here...you just save me a place in line to see you when I get there...until we meet...I send you my love, hugs and kisses...@>~~}~~~ look how beautiful you are....

Great Aunt Jo Ann

I had made a deal with your mom, if she had you and your sister on my birthday 5/17, I would babysit every year on their anniversary 5/18 for you two. Uncle Rich wanted to know if had a choice in the matter, I said yes you can choose which baby to hold. I would have loved to watch you anytime. You will be in our hearts every day, when the sunshines, the flowers bloom, when the rainbows appear, this will be a reminder of how beautiful you are. Angel kisses to you.

Papa

So many hopes and dreams for you my babydoll. Grandma and I were looking forward to sharing so much with the two of you. Just watching you both grow and looking out for you two was our goal. I will never forget you my dear-you have a part of me with you to share with our entire family that was in heaven to watch over you. Say hello to great grandma & grandpa P for me. I know they feel our sorrow and will be with you always.

We can only ask why? But like mommy said-It is far better to have felt the way we did than to have never know you. I think of you everyday and please know you are alive in our thoughts and dreams.

Watch over your sisters and mommy and daddy-you are my angel forever.

I truly miss what i never had.

Love you baby,

Papa

Giavanna Grace Ferrucci

Giavanna was discovered along side of her sister at 7 weeks and 3 days. The ultrasound was unscheduled. I went in for what I thought was an ultrasound of my gall bladder and when that checked out just fine, they decided to do an internal ultrasound.

There they were. They really were there! There were 2 BABIES! Hard to believe that we were blessed with such a wonderful thing. Giavanna was quiet even then. The ultrasound tech had to push on the top of my pelvic bone to get her to move. She was always so calm. We were never able to get a true picture of her face. Throughout every ultrasound we had (and we had many) she was always so quiet. We could have known then, that it was a sign. There was one ultrasound that I remember so vividly. Gianna (Baby A) was actually touching Giavanna's (Baby B) face. At that point, I never thought in a million years that I would have wished she would have printed that picture for me. I never thought once that we may run into any trouble. It was amazing to watch them grow. Always so close in size. They always acted as "one." They really did not even hit each other that much in utero. They never fought. They were so cramped inside, but they never beat each other. At 31 weeks and 6 days (my last doctors appointment) my uterus measured 49 weeks pregnant. Still not enough room for the 2 of them.

Funny to think that I would know for sure they never fought, but I did. I knew who was positioned where and who was who. I knew who had the hiccups and when. I knew when Giavanna moved because she was so far in my back. She had the hiccups Monday or Tuesday night before I delivered them that Friday. I remember her head moved up my left side and then back down. That is truly the last time I know that I felt her alive. She was always face down and she never seemed to like getting her picture taken. If I would have known that on March 30, 2006 was the last time I would actually get the chance to see her active, I would have told them to deliver me. How could I have not know there was a problem? I know that I was so close to be with you. I just do not understand why I was given a second chance to live and you were not even given your first?! I really do not even understand how close to death I was. Maybe because I really do not care because I lost you anyway. Who chose for our life to be this? We surely did not.

I so patiently waited for the day I could hold my 2 baby girls together. I never had that chance. I wish that I was not so drugged up that I could have insisted it. For some reason that gift we were so lucky to be blessed with, was taken from us without our permission. Tell me, how can someone do that to a set of parents that want their children so badly? We were scared when we found out, TWINS, but we were SOOOO excited. We were blessed with something that so few people in this world or even their lifetime could ever experience. We conceived our girls spontaneously. We were supposed to be able to have people stare at us, like I always did throughout my life, when I saw twins. I wanted people to stare at us and stop us just to catch a peek at our girls.

We never once cared what the sex was of our TWINS was going to be. You know, There are so many people out there that only care of the sex of their unborn child. Those are the people that should be ashamed of themselves. I am very bitter toward these people. I was then, but ever more now. They need to understand that it should not be what sex your child is, but, "IS MY CHILD HEALTHY?" If there really are people out there that only want to have children to have a boy or girl, then SHAME ON YOU. We truly thought that these babies were boys, I know I did and so did everyone else I talked to. But we did not conceive this pregnancy to have a boy. These were our CHILDREN. We were supposed to be a family of 5 that people could see. Now, how do I explain this to people? The dreaded question is "How many children do you have?" We are still parents and sister to twins, but one walks and one "flies." The ONLY thing we would change about this pregnancy, the outcome.

We can say that the odds are not in our favor, that IF we were to ever conceive again, we will probably never conceive twins again. What we wouldn't do to have this chance again. I think that we should have that chance again. Obviously my opinion does not matter to Him. Eventhough there are times that I look at Gianna and it looks as if she is Giavanna. She looks at me like she sees me for the first time. I will always wonder how our lives would have been different. We were really looking forward Christmas morning this year and all the years to come. Now I dread it. To have to go through what we have been through the past 6 months, this truly is the worst thing. I would not wish this upon anyone.

I have become friends with many women online and joined many support groups online. Our missing angels are what has brought us together. I do not know what I would have done without everyone. My husband especially. You are the backbone in this family. You have been strong when I could not be. You are my life, and like I have told you before, I wonder if Giavanna came to us and left us so soon just to bring us closer then we ever were. You are the best father I could have ever asked for. Our girls have such a great daddy that I feel bad for all those boys that will come into the picture in the future years. I mean, WHAT BOYS?! I know, they will not date until they are 30. You are the best daddy in the world and they love you just as much as I do. Adrianna, you are my first born. You made me get up on the days that I did not want to. You were there when I cried when I was pregnant and I could not do it any longer. You are here now with me when I cry alone and you cry with me. Thank you sweetie. Gianna you are my middle child and you are my miracle. In the cases of TTTS, usually the bigger twin or in most cases BOTH end up passing before or DURING delivery. The larger twin dies from heart failure and sometimes the smaller twin is delivered and dies shortly after delivery. YOU ARE MY MIRACLE. I do not believe that Giavanna GAVE her life for you. She was robbed and you faught with all you had to survive. She was just too small and weak to fight. Giavanna~ Gianna, daddy and I are the only ones that felt you. You are my missing angel that I will always hold close inside my heart. I wish you were here. You took my heart with you when you left. Why did you have to go? Didnt HE know that we needed you here more? I cannot wait to see you and run to you and hold you. And the only way I can talk to you is by a computer?! How unfair... Tell Him that he made a mistake and you belong here with your family. There is no better place than in your mommys arms. Right?!

Mom and Dad~Thank you for everything. Mom thank you for helping me do one of the hardest things I had to do when I had to go through the clothes that were to be Giavannas'. We cried together and I know that I would not have been able to do it alone. Thank you for all the rides back and forth to Syracuse to visit Giavanna When she was there. And you never forget to incude Giavanna. You understand that she is still our daughter. You both are the best parents that anyone could ask for. Love you both.

Mom~Thank you for all you have done. The rides back and forth to Syracuse and the long talks. All you have done for us, there are no words that can express how much we love you. You are truly the greatest "mother"-in-law that we could ask for. We love you so much more than you will EVER know.

Kristi and Mark~Thank you for all the food you cooked and bought for us when we came home form the hospital. You are truly 2 of the greatest people in the world that we could ever ask for. Thank you EVERYTHING. We love you both so very much.

Heather~ MA MUCHIE! You were there for me when I did not even want to answer the phone. You heard me cry and scream at HIM wondering why. You are my bestest friend in the whole wide world. You were the only one I called laying on the table after they told us we had lost Giavanna. I truly dont even remember what I said to you. All I know is that I cried. I thank you so much for doing what you are doing to include my daughter. It is something I will always cherish, and you know that.

Aunt JoAnn and Uncle Rich~You came up and saw us at our worst. For all you did there is nothing that we can do to repay you. You were there when we needed you guys the most. I may have been a bratty child and hard to get along with. I am so very sorry for all the years I was like that. You are so special to us all and you did above and beyond what you ever need to.

Adam and Murphy~Thank you so much for being there in that horrible room when I opened my eyes. A, you and I always have been close and I thank you so much for being there for me. You did not have to see her, hold her, touch her, but you did. Murph you too. Girl, I thank you for being ther when I opened my eyes. It is that that we hold close to our hearts. You both are so special. We love you guys so much.

EVERYONE ELSE~For those of you that came to visit us and helped us, thank you. Without our family and friends, we would not have made it through this. Thank you again so very much. We love all of you.

Thank you for reading and please dont forget to include Giavanna in eveything. She is still our daughter, here or there. It is more hurtful that she is not included then when you do. Thank you all for reading.
